

I was thrilled to see so many talented actors and actresses come out to audition last weekend for Charlotte's Web! Everyone did very well - so you should all be extremely proud of your readings. If you were not cast in this show, do not be discouraged! Please come out to more auditions here at the FOA. We do so many shows every season that always need new and different faces! That being said, congratulations to you all!

We look forward to seeing you tonight at 5pm for our cast meeting and then this Saturday, the 28th, at 10am-1pm for our read-through.

Thank you all!
-Kaylin Taylor
