*Holidays are defined as the actual calendar dates of publicly recognized holidays AND Christmas Eve, Easter Monday, and the day after Thanksgiving. Also included in Holiday Rates are any days during which The Foundation of Arts would normally be closed for business. Call The Foundation of Arts offices for exact dates that constitute holiday rates.

Non-profit discounts will be granted to civic, church, or incorporated 501(c)3 organizations recognized by the Internal Revenue Service.

Extended personnel fees will also apply in addition to the hourly rental charge.

Your rental time should include your set up and clean-up time.

Rental space comes as is (stage, bar, and furniture cannot be removed from the room).

Above-stated rental fees include the following amenities:

1. Use of restroom facilities.
2. Use of sound systems and equipment included in rooms, specialty equipment available upon request (subject to availability).
4. Electricity, heating, or air conditioning.
5. Folding chairs or tables.

Deposit Requirements: $100 to reserve space on the calendar

Deposit must be settled before the room is reserved. Renter will be invoiced for an additional hour if room is not cleaned and set back the way it was found.

Deposits will not be refunded unless the event is cancelled at least two full weeks before scheduled rental date.

All cancellations must be made by the same person who arranged reservations.

A staff member from The Foundation of Arts will be present during the time of rental. However, the staff member is not responsible for cleaning up the space or decorating the space. The staff will ensure that the rental space is cleaned before day of rental.
